RISK WARNING STATEMENT

Last updated: 13.06.2022

Buying and selling of cryptocurrencies such as Bitcoin entail certain risks.

Any currency – virtual or not – may be subject to large swings in value and may even become worthless.

- Cryptocurrencies such as Bitcoin are virtual currencies not backed by real assets or tangible securities. They are traded between consenting parties with no broker and tracked on digital ledgers.

- Bitcoin and cryptocurrency transactions are irreversible which means that sending cryptocurrency to an incorrect address, or sending an incorrect amount can result in loss of funds. OCTOPUSPAYS LIMITED will not be liable for executing a transaction if the instruction is related to an incorrect cryptocurrency address or an incorrect amount sent.

- Dexopay's website and platform may experience temporary hardware, software, and Internet connection failure that may lead to communication disruptions, failures, errors or delays in payment transfers and currency conversion service.
